2009 CLASS SCHEDULE

Welcome to another year at The Needlepoint. I hope you all had a great Christmas and happy New Year. Please note that due to increased parking and clearway problems we will be open 6 days a week, Monday to Saturday from 10am to 4pm from February 2009. Jan Green will staff the shop on Mondays. Jan has been teaching and working with me for over three years and is very experienced in all aspects of needlework, come in and ask her advice.

Once again our team of talented teachers will offer you a range of new classes and some old favourites. Many of our classes operate on a regular monthly basis, giving more flexibility on class projects. Jan Green will again teach all aspects of counted thread and embroidery with day, afternoon and evening classes. Join her new drawn thread project. Jan Kerton's classes will feature stumpwork, threadpainting and wool embroidery. We also have Catherine Howell teaching crewel embroidery and Win Carter teaching felting. Robyn Miller will teach an exciting new Santa and angel canvaswork class. Some of our old favourites like Dorothy Addlem's bunnies and Joy Bear's felt angels and animals will be available again this year. Rosemary Tonkin joins us to teach blackwork.

Please choose your classes carefully as your deposits are transferrable, but non-refundable. Many class projects are on display in the shop so please drop by.

Thank you for your continued support and I look forward to another successful year.
